

Pastor Edwin L. Stallworth

Pastor Edwin L. Stallworth is a native of Brewton, Alabama but he grew up in Crestview, Florida. He is married to the former Miss Rachel Ann Harper, and they have three children. After graduating from Crestview High School in 1981, he attended R.E.T.S. Electronics Institute in Birmingham, Alabama earning his degree in Electronics Engineering. While in Birmingham, he was under the watch care of Bishop Meadows, C.O.G.I.C., during this time, God baptized him in the precious Holy Spirit and it became evident that Pastor Stallworth would be used mightily in the work of the Lord.

He returned home to Crestview, Florida to begin his work in Evelenar MBC as an Ordained Deacon. Pastor Stallworth became Chairman of the Deacon Ministry in 1985. In 1992 he preached his initial sermon and became an ordained minister in 1996. Also, in 1996 he was chosen as Assistant Pastor at Evelenar MBC until he became a Senior Pastor. He is Currently serving at Evelenar MBC, his home church, since March of 2015.

In addition, he earned the Master of Theology: August 2004, from Christian Life School of Theology; in Columbia, Georgia, Concentration: Pastoral Leadership. Bachelor of Theology: June 2003, from Christian Life School of Theology; Columbia, Georgia, Concentration: Biblical Studies. Pastor Stallworth has 25 years in the ministry with his past experience being that of serving as Senior Pastor to Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Laurel Hill, Florida; (February 2001 - October 2004), and First Unity Baptist Church in Andalusia, Alabama; (October, 2004 - August 2010), and True Divine Baptist Church in Andalusia, Alabama; (August 2010 - March 2013), and Sixth Avenue Baptist Church; Florala, Alabama; (December 2013 - March 2015).

He has served in the many leadership capacities to include: pastoral leadership through preaching, teaching homiletics and hermeneutics, worship planning, counseling and administration for ministry. Implemented outreach programs to enhance church growth for Sunday school, Bible Study and worship service attendance. In addition, He is a Television Evangelist, a Chaplain for the City of Crestview Police Department, and he serves other organizations through: Ordination services, revivals, facilitated workshops and men conferences. He Evangelized in churches of different denominations throughout Northwest Florida, South Alabama and Texas. Served as Vice President, Florida Progressive District Congress of Christian Education. He previously served as 2nd Vice Moderation Alabama Baptist Southwest District Association from 2004 -2010; and Alabama Baptist Southwest District Association; served as President of Deacons and Ministers Quarterly Union form October 2007 - March 2012.